

JUDGE CROW IS HOLDING COURT IN KNOX COUNTY

Special Session of Court to Hear Case of Pike, Admr., Vs. Koons

SUIT IS BROUGHT TO MARSHAL LIENS

Two Contracts Let By Commissioners; Others Items From Courthouse

Judge W. N. Crow of Millersburg was on the bench in the Knox county common pleas court Tuesday to hear the case of Oregon Pike, administrator, vs. William M. Koons et al. The case was especially assigned for the day and a number of witnesses were to testify. The case will probably consume most of the day.

To Marshal Liens—

W. J. Enterbrook has commenced a suit against J. B. Carter and others in the Knox county common pleas court to marshal liens. The plaintiff states that on May 23, 1921, he obtained a judgment in common pleas court against the defendant and that on May 31 an execution was issued on the said judgment. The plaintiff says that W. L. Belmont has a judgment on the real estate and the Ohio Fuel Supply Co. has an interest in the property in the way of leases for gas and oil purposes. It is further pointed out by the plaintiff that Ezra Turney has a lien on the property by a mortgage, and the plaintiff therefore claims he is unable to sell the premises to satisfy his claim. He therefore asks that the claimants get up their various claims and that the amount of the plaintiff's and defendants' lien be determined and adjusted and that the real estate be sold and the various claims allowed. P. L. Wilkins is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Motion Filed—

In the case of Amasa Lindley vs. Sherman Grant, a motion to dismiss the attachment has been filed by the defendant in the common pleas court of Knox county. The defendant says the allegations set out in the affidavit of the plaintiff, upon which the order of attachment was issued, are untrue. The plaintiff therefore asks that the attachment be dismissed. Frank O. Levering is the attorney for the defendant.

Account Confirmed—

The second and partial account of Advice Neiderhouser, guardian of Laura C. Sapp, has been confirmed by the probate court of Knox county. A third and final account has been filed by the guardian.

Will Admitted—

The last will and testament of Magie E. Horlacher has been admitted to probate.

Appointment Made—

Clifford G. Horlacher of Centerburg has been appointed executor of Magie Horlacher by the probate court of Knox county. No bond.

Petition Filed—

Henry C. Devin, administrator of Katherine Winne, has commenced a partition suit in the probate court of Knox county against Ella W. Hostwick for the purpose of selling real estate. The cause has been continued until a later date by Judge Duke.

Second Partial—

Advice Neiderhouser (Reed), guardian of Charles Sharp, has filed a second partial account in probate, showing the following: Received $604.50, paid out $220.10, leaving a balance of $384.40.

Order Granted—

In the matter of Frank Cronthers vs. the Knox Tire & Rubber Co., in which a petition was filed asking to release lost stock, an order has been granted by Judge Duke of the probate court.

In a similar proceeding of O. L. Welliver vs. the Knox Tire & Rubber Co., the hearing has been continued by the probate court.

Marriage License—

C. Clyde Hoffelinger, minister, Wilbur O., and Rosa Marie Wathrich, teacher, Brown township, Rev. J. H. Kuhlman of Loudonville.

Contracts Let—

The Knox county commissioners, at their session Monday, awarded the following contracts: Walter Workman, damages to de-tour at the Workman bridge in Brown township, $30.

E. P. Greer, maintenance of Greer-Danville gravel pike, Jefferson township, $186.90.

Real Estate Transfers—

H. G. Messmore to H. T. Blosser, parcel in Centerburg, $1.
Abraham L. Stokes to E. D. Rinehart, parcel in city, $1.

In the injunction case of William N. Orelaugh vs. French W. Severns and Robert Severns, a written opinion was handed down by Judge Crow of Holmes county in the Knox county common pleas court Tuesday afternoon in which the court dissolves the temporary injunction at the costs of the plaintiff.

Plaintiff brought suit restraining the defendant from entering his land and assist in harvesting a wheat crop. The defendants filed an answer in which Robert Severns claimed to have a one-half interest in the crop.

Judge Crow held that Robert Severns was a cropper and was entitled to receive a one-half interest as his share in the wheat crop. The temporary injunction was therefore dissolved at the cost of the plaintiff. It was further ordered that the defendant threaten the wheat and place one-half of the crop in a bin to be provided by the plaintiff and to keep one-half for his own. The plaintiff is enjoined, by the opinion of the court, from interfering with the defendant in the threshing and distribution of the wheat.

Appeal bond was fixed at $200 by Judge Crow.

Case Submitted—

The case of Oregon Pike, administrator, vs. William M. Koons, was submitted before Judge Crow of Millersburg in the Knox county common pleas court Tuesday. The case was taken under consideration by the court. Opinion later.

Two Suits Filed—

Two suits have been filed in the Knox county common pleas court against W. H. Leedy.

The Franklin Coffee Company files suit against W. H. Leedy, claiming there is due the plaintiff the sum of $160.32 for goods sold the defendant. The plaintiff asks for a judgment in the above sum with interest from May 1, 1921.

The Dean & Barry Co. vs. W. H. Leedy is the style of another suit filed in the court of common pleas. The plaintiff asks for a judgment in the sum of 138.25 for goods furnished the defendant. The plaintiffs also ask for interest from August 1, 1921.

W. A. Hosack is the attorney for the plaintiffs in each case.

Order Granted—

In the estate of O. Poppleton an order has been granted by the probate court to distribute assets in kind.

First and Final—

A first and final account has been filed in the probate court of Knox county Dr. J. A. Reed, guardian of Elizabeth Lissner, showing the following: Received $1,378.43, paid out $840.29, leaving a balance of $738.14.

CHIEF PARKER HAS A TALL CORNSTALK

Exhibits Growth From His Farm That Measures 12 Feet, 9 Inches

Chief of Police Parker brought in from his farm, two and one-half miles east of Gambler, a stalk of corn that he is exhibiting with some pride at the city building. The stalk measures 12 feet, 9 inches, and six feet from the ground to the first ear.

Chief Parker visited his farm on Tuesday afternoon and was impressed by the corn he found in one field. The stalk cut was selected without particular effort to select one unusually tall, but is an average specimen of the entire field. It is of the Yellow Dent variety and was grown by G. H. Foster, who is Chief Parker's tenant.

It is possible that some taller stalks may be found in Knox county but Chief Parker is waiting to see them before he surrenders his claim to the championship honors.

The "Creature" and Father

By MURIEL BLAIR

(Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

March the forth its going to be a miserable birthday for me on the tenth I guess. Last year we had two ducks stuffed with sage and onions and I had a birthday party and a lot of other boys and girls but this year there isn't going to be anything. We never have duck now anyway because since father died mother has been so darned poor I'm sure I don't blame her would you.

March the sixth I find on looking over my diary that I didn't explain the way it ought to be. I must tell you first that father used to be in the secretary of states office at Washington. We live near Washington but were moved into a smaller house since father died. It was a pity he didn't go young because father and mother had a bad falling out about a girl the night before and he didn't have a funeral or anything. It was a girl my father used to know before he was married and mother said there wasn't any harm in that but why did father have a date with her at the Monument. Father said he didn't have a date but both happened to be there and if mother hadn't come snooping around all would have been well. Mother said she wouldn't stand for such language and the next day father died.

We moved into a tiny house after father died. March the ninth I'm going to write to the president to get me a new father. The president thought a great deal of father and mother used to go to his reception but she hasn't been to any since father died. Its odd how different it is after you haven't any father.

March the eleventh I wrote to the president yesterday about a father. I told him how awful it is to be without one and I explained that he wouldn't have died if he hadn't met the Creature.

March the thirteenth no answer has come from the president. I guess he is looking up a father for me. It isn't easy to choose the right kind of a father.

March the fourteenth I must write this down at once before I forget all the circumstances. We are going into Washington tomorrow to have my birthday party with Mrs. Gregory that the lady who introduced mother to father at the white house reception.

March the fifteenth this is my birthday. No letter from the president. March the sixteenth I take my pen in hand to inform you of the astonishing events of yesterday. We arrived in Washington on the eleven day and went straight to Mrs. Gregory's house. Mrs. Gregory is a nice old lady with silver hair and when she saw mother they both began to cry. I stood by sheepishly and presently Mrs. Gregory said to this is the Little Fellow how he has grown. I said Yes Mom. Mother said don't you pity me. You poor thing, said Mrs. Gregory from the bottom of my heart I do. Then they began to talk earnestly and I knew that they were talking about my new father. So I said Mrs. Gregory I wrote to the president for another father and I guess he has spoken to you, hasn't he. What she cried, starting up, so that was you. Mother was furious and told me to run away into the garden to play. I played till I was tired and went back into the house round the back way. When I got outside the parlor door I heard a sound of sobbing and suddenly a well remembered voice cried in tones that froze the blood in my veins Where is the Little Fellow Phyllis I must see him at once. The door flew open and who do you think was there. My father—the same one. And he hadn't died at all but only gone away. I never saw mother laugh and cry together as she did then and they wouldn't stop kissing me. They said the credit lay between Mrs. Gregory and the president and that the Creature has married and gone away.

We had two ducks for dinner. Kelp Superior to Rattan. The strong, tough strands of the variety of seaweed known as giant kelp, which grows in abundance along the coast of the Americas, have been found to be an ideal material for the weaving of all sorts and sizes of baskets, reed furniture, and like articles says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is said to be greatly superior to willow and rattan for the purpose, as it is much more pliable than other materials and therefore more easily worked. Many persons believe that plants which grow in water are tender when wet, and fragile when dry. This is not true of kelp, the fiber being of leatherlike consistency and toughness, and the strands, also for size, nearly as strong as leather. In fashioning the various pieces of furniture, the strands are woven in such a way that the natural brown shade of the plant's exterior forms the outside of the article, and the velvety white heart, the interior.

Choosing a Stenographer. "Several young women are waiting to apply for a stenographic position, Mr. Grabsco." "Very well. Shoo all those who have bobbed hair and extremely short skirts off the premises. Then if you can find one among the rest who doesn't look as if she thought a movie idol were the answer to a maiden's prayer, show her in."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"Salad" Really "Salted."

Salad literally means salted and is a direct descendant of the Latin word sal, or salt. The use of salad to mean the greens from which or on which a salad mixture is placed is one of only recent origin. The Italian insalata and the Spanish salada, meaning salted in those languages, actually mean salted.

OLD TAX RECEIPT HAS DATE OF 1826

Mrs. Ethel Collins Owns a Paper Given to Grandfather Many Years Ago

Since the publication in The Banner of an article telling of old tax receipts of 1827, owned by D. A. Baughman of Bladensburg and which had been given his grandfather, the late Jacob Baughman, and to his great grandfather, the late Christian Baughman, others have been searching among old papers and also have uncovered some interesting relics of the long ago.

Mrs. Ethel Collins of Mt. Vernon is the possessor of a tax receipt that antedates the Baughman receipts. It was given to her grandfather, a Mr. Phillips, in 1826. He was the owner of land in Pike township which he purchased of the United States government, paying $125 an acre. At the time the purchase was made, Chillicothe still was the state capital and the U. S. office was located there. Mr. Phillips making the trip to and from Chillicothe when the purchase was made. The deed bears the signature of John Quincy Adams as president of the United States.

Doubtless other old papers of similar interest may be found. The Banner will be pleased to give an account and description of any such that may be found.

CIRCULAR LETTER CONCERNS TEACHERS

Conditions For Employment Of Temporary Teachers Given In Communication

The following is an excerpt from a circular letter from State Supt. Vernon M. Riegel of Columbus, received by County Supt. J. C. Marriott Monday, and which has reference to the employment of temporary teachers for the school year 1921-22. It is an important ruling of the department and of interest to every prospective teacher:

"It will be necessary (1) that the applicant shall have made a successful grade on the special examination; (2) that the applicant's credits shall have been evaluated by this department and found sufficient; (3) that there be a vacancy for which a suitable teacher with better qualifications is not available; (4) that there be no evidence that the teacher has been elected by a board of education without an effort to secure a teacher with better qualifications.

"It should be made plain to applicants who take the examination for temporary certificates that they will not secure certificates even if the test is passed, unless they are needed. For this reason we shall send you a special printed slip to be filled out by temporary applicants so that they cannot misunderstand and feel aggrieved afterward if certificates are not issued."

SOMNABULIST GOES ON MIDNIGHT WALK

Identity of Man Seen Clad in Only Nightshirt Remains a Dark Mystery

Since an early hour Sunday morning there has been more than a little speculation as to the identity of a sleep walker who was discovered taking a stroll through the streets exceedingly lightly clad.

Willard W. Graham and a friend were on their way to their respective homes when they were surprised to discover on East Sugar street a man walking along leisurely clad in nothing but a night shirt. At Park street he turned and started south. He was followed by the two men whose curiosity was aroused. By the time they had decided the man must be walking in his sleep he had put some little distance between them. Increasing their speed as he neared Ohio avenue, they called to the promenade with the sole result that he was awakened whereupon, discovering his situation and the lightness of his apparel, he took to his heels and quickly was lost in the darkness. The two men were unable to gain any further trace of the somnambulist.
